

Cottage on the Hill

Guest House

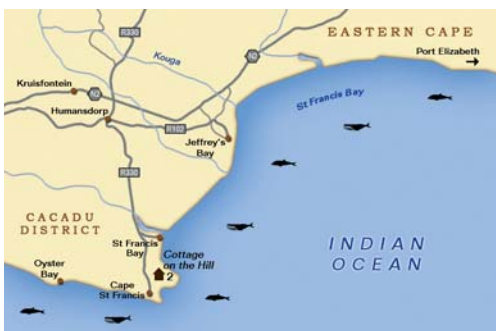

Hospitality is the gift of welcome and caring for strangers. It is an open door, an open hand and an open heart... Let the feeling of peace and tranquillity invade your soul and drink in the tranquil atmosphere of this unique location...

Nestled in the indigenous Eastern Cape fynbos, high on the ridge of St Francis, overlooking the bay and surrounding Kouga Mountains, is Cottage on the Hill. This charming 4-star guest house will enchant you. The property consists of the main house with a Bay Breakfast Room and Yellow Wood Pub; the Guinea-fowl Cottage is separate and is about 30 metres from the Francolin and Mongoose Suites, which overlook the natural rock swimming pool with cascading waterfalls. Aloes contrasted with the crimson bougainvillea surround the pool in a protective embrace, holding this exclusive place forever in your heart...

A feeling of peace and tranquillity invade your soul as you laze at the pool or sunbathe on your private deck. Sip sundowners as you enjoy the last rays of sunlight over the bay. The warning cry of the francolin can be heard in the surrounding fynbos. An inquisitive mongoose or shy Cape robin may surprise you, while you take a refreshing outdoor shower in the enclosed boma. The resident pair of giant eagle owls can be heard on the thatch roof late at night and their soothing calls will lull you into a contented sleep. The 75 square metres Mongoose Suite is stylish and elegant in design, decorated with Persians rugs and original oil paintings by local artists. Relax in the private garden with abundant bird life or barbeque (braai) on your patio. Drink in the tranquil atmosphere of this unique location! Honeymoon on 'Top of the World' in the Francolin Suite; amazing sea and mountain views from the Victorian bath, king-size bed and a large balcony. Indulge yourselves in the beauty and comfort of this romantic suite. Discover the Guinea-fowl Cottage and fall in love with this quaint little gem, perfectly positioned and fully equipped. Delicious English breakfasts are served, with a view that will beckon you to surf with the dolphins, collect shells, soak up the sun or walk on the beach. Cottage on the Hill is situated close to all amenities; golf on the new St Francis Links, ocean- and canal cruises can also be arranged. Cottage on the Hill is dedicated to making your experience, the most memorable and unforgettable. The Eaglesham family warmly welcome you to their luxury guest house and will offer you great South African hospitality. 🇿🇦

For more information and reservations contact:
Telephone: +27 42 294-0761 or Mobile: +27 76 563-5662
E-mail: cottageonthehill@telkomsa.net
Website: www.cottageonthehill.co.za

